HOW TO SUBMIT PAPERS OR ORGANIZE WORKSHOPS FOR ACCOUNTABILITY THROUGH MEASUREMENT

2ND NATIONAL CSIN CONFERENCE IN TORONTO
Ryerson University — Oakham House, March 2 to 5, 2010

If you're interested in presenting a formal Conference Paper, or organizing a Conference Workshop at the 2nd National CSIN Conference in Toronto, March 2 to 5, 2010 – Contact us, today!

Accountability through Measurement is the theme of our 2010 Conference. The question of how one accurately gauges progress towards social, economic and environmental sustainability continues to be one of the most profound governance challenges of this century.

The focus of the 2010 CSIN Conference: Measurement Solutions at Work. Workshops and plenary discussions must be geared for professionals eager to learn practical techniques that show delegates how to develop and evaluate indicator systems and how to put them to use wherever they work.

To present a formal paper, or organize a workshop at the 2nd National CSIN Conference, please submit a short abstract by July 15, 2009. Papers and workshops will be accepted on the following themes:

- ◆ Strengthening Sustainable Development Governance through Measurement
- ◆ Getting the Message Across – Innovation in Storytelling and the Visualization of Indicators
- ◆ From Information to Influence – Incorporating Indicators into Decision-Making
- ◆ Experiences and Best Practices
- ◆ The Business of Sustainability Indicators
